

Project Work

Class-X

Subject - Geography

Topic- Development of tourism in India

1. Biodata (name, class, roll no, subject)

2. Topic

3. Acknowledgement

4. Index

5. Introduction

*What is meant by tourism

*Factors responsible for the development of tourism in India.

(Left hand side of the page - paste an outline map of India and mark Delhi, Mumbai, Chennai and Kolkata.)

6. Now divide India into 4-part North, South, East and West. From each part select any three states and write about those places and paste respective pictures)

Example: From Northern part you may take States like Jammu and Kashmir Himachal Pradesh and Uttarakhand -(collect information regarding there history, development of tourism and important places to visit - also collect pictures)

7. Advantages of tourism in India

8. Problem of tourism in India (left hand side page -provide graphical representation of the rate of development of tourism)

9. Comparative study of any two parts of India (you can compare Northern part to the western part of India- in respect of development)

10. Conclusion

How the government has taken steps to develop tourism in India

11. Bibliography

Note: all the pictures should be pasted on the left-hand side of the writing pages.